U.S. Economy – Low Inflation, Strong Growth

The good news keeps coming on the American economy

- ✓ The economy is stronger – Real Gross Domestic Product growth averaged 3.2 percent in 2005.
- ✓ Americans are richer – After-tax income is up 5.4 percent in the last 12 months.
- ✓ Consumers are confident – Consumer spending rose 0.9 percent in January, the largest increase in 12 months.
- ✓ Nest eggs are growing – Average home prices rose 13 percent in 2005, a huge increase for the 69 percent of Americans who own their own homes.
- ✓ Americans are working – The unemployment rate is at 4.8 percent, almost a five-year low, while initial unemployment claims are near the lowest point since 1999.
- ✓ Prices are stable – Inflation, measured by the price index for personal consumption expenditures, grew at a low 2.9 percent in 2005.
- ✓ Productivity is booming – The average annual growth rate of output per worker since 2001 is 3.1 percent, the best rate since the 1960's.
- ✓ The American economy is the envy of the Industrialized world – The U.S. unemployment rate is lower than that of Canada, France, Germany, Italy, and the United Kingdom.

The United States has one of the lowest unemployment rates in the industrialized world
